

Making Knowledge on Ukraine in the Interwar Period

Workshop, 25–26 September 2023

IOS Regensburg, room 319, Landshuter Str. 4, 93047 Regensburg, Germany

Poster "Ukraine" ("Україна") with infographic and the map "Ukraine within its ethnographic borders" ("Україна у своїх етнографічних межах") by Yuri Hasenko and Stepan Rudnytsky, Vienna 1920. Public domain.

Monday, September 25th

10:00–10:30 Opening remarks (Galina Babak, Guido Hausmann, Martin Rohde, Jan Surman)

10:30–12:30 Panel I: Networks

Andrii Portnov (Frankfurt/Oder): Cross-border intellectual exchange in Ukrainian humanities of the inter-war period

Hannah Steckelberg (Vienna): The Vienna-Ukraine connection in educational publishing

Yuliia Horbach (Kyiv): Ukrainian literary scholar Leonid Biletsky and his scientific activity during the Prague emigration period (1920-1940s) [online]

Comment: Aleksandr Dmitriev (Lausanne)

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–15:00 Panel II: International Communication

Magdalena Gibiec (Wrocław): Exerting soft power. Addressing "Ukrainian problem" at the League of Nations and in Western Europe by the Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists

Andreea Dahlquist (Târgoviște/Malmö): The Ukrainian Movement in Interwar Romania and Poland Reflected in the Diplomatic Correspondence of the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Comment: Jan Surman (Prague)

15:00–15:30 Coffee break

15:30–17:00 Panel III: Memoirs I

Jagoda Wierzejska (Warsaw): Production of ideologized knowledge and areas of ignorance about the Polish-Ukrainian War for Eastern Galicia in Polish memoirs of the interwar period

Martin Rohde (Regensburg/Prague): Making knowledge under threat. Ukrainian memoirs on the Polish-Ukrainian war in the interwar period

Comment: Galina Babak (Prague)

17:00–17:30 Coffee break

17:30–19:00: Panel IV: Memoirs II

Yuki Murata (Vienna): Russian Retrospection of Revolutionary Ukraine in Interwar Europe: "White Cause" and Beyond"

Fabian Baumann (Vienna): The Historian as Memoirist, the Memoirist as Activist: Oleksander Shul'hyn's Autobiographical Practice and the Consolidation of the Ukrainian Emigration

Comment: Gennadii Korolov (Warsaw)

20:00 Conference dinner

Tuesday, September 26th

9:30–11:00 Panel V: National Territories under Discussion

Gennadii Korolov (Warsaw): Between Empire and New Russia: Otto Eichelman on Ukraine's political system, postimperial international law, and deadlock of geopolitics (early 20th century – 1926)

Stanislav Holubec (Prague): Ethnographic Mapping of Podkarpatská Rus in the Interwar Period [online]

Comment: Martin Rohde (Regensburg)

11:00–11:30 Coffee break

11:30–13:30 Panel VI: Historiographies and Ideologies

Galina Babak (Prague): Mykyta Shapoval: Fighting for Ukrainian independence / social revolution – and making knowledge about it

Robert Born (Oldenburg): Volodymyr Sas-Zalozetsky and the Interpretation of the Art in Ukraine in the Interwar Period

Brian Horowitz (New Orleans): Ilya Galant: The Jewish Historian Who Loved Ukraine [online]

Comment: Guido Hausmann (Regensburg)

13:30–14:00 Concluding discussion

14:00 Lunch

Organizers: Galina Babak, Guido Hausmann, Martin Rohde, Jan Surman

The workshop is jointly organized and supported by IOS Regensburg, the Institute of History (Czech Academy of Sciences), and the Lumina quaeruntur project "Images of science" in Czechoslovakia 1918-1945-1968 (Masaryk Institute and Archives, Czech Academy of Sciences).

Cooperation partners

Bayerisch-Tschechische
Hochschulagentur

Česko-bavorská
vysokoškolská agentura

mia MASARYK INSTITUTE
AND ARCHIVES OF THE CAS, v.v.i.

