

Department for Interdisciplinary and Multiscalar Area Studies

EARLY CAREER RESEARCH SEMINAR

Room S.214 | Sammelgebäude | Universität Regensburg
Bring your lunch | Coffee & tea provided
12:15-13:30

June 12, 2024

Sebastian Richter, MA: Another approach to area studies: introduction to phenomenology of cultural (digital) space (work in progress presentation)

---

Dr. Mélanie Sadozaï: The dialogue between Area Studies and International Relations Theory (State of the Art)...

...followed by a discussion of texts investigating theories and methods of Area Studies (get in touch for GRIPS access).

July 17, 2024

Barbara Wimmer-Bulin, MA: Doing landscape, while exploring resources: a transcalarity and multiscalar fieldwork in the natural park „Parque natural da costa alentejano e da costa vicentina“, Portugal (work in progress presentation)

---

German and European grant landscape for Early Career Researchers

Contact: dimas@uni-regensburg.de
Organizers: Mélanie Sadozaï, Roman Birke

Seminar for Early Career Researchers. We present ongoing work, provide feedback and engage in discussions around theoretical and methodological questions of Area Studies and research that relates to transnational and transregional questions. DIMAS member or not. Everybody is welcome.